

FTTAA APPLICATION COVER LETTER – Fall 2026

Dear FTTAA Applicant,

A. Attached to this letter is the full-time training application. Please pay careful attention to the details below and be thorough in filling in this form:

1. English: The training is conducted in English only. We will have further fellowship with those who are applying from countries whose primary language is not English. This information is detailed in the application; however, please fellowship if there are any concerns.
2. Consecration Agreement: Within the FTTAA application is a consecration agreement. Please read this agreement prayerfully. Make sure that all the points are clearly understood before signing it.
3. Medical Information: A medical questionnaire is included and must be completed and sent in along with the application and consecration agreement.
4. Acceptance Information: Those accepted to the training will be notified by the FTTAA office. Please do not make travel arrangements or post any information on any social media until you have been officially notified of your acceptance.

B. Payment for Accommodation, Food, and Travel:

The Full-time Training will provide for accommodation and food. However if any potential trainees or their sending localities have the burden to contribute towards meeting these basic costs, please fellowship with us. The cost for such a training in a full-time way is very high. Hence we encourage all those applying to consider this matter in a sober manner. The fact that the full-time program will cover the cost should not make the training a cheap or an ordinary matter in the minds and thoughts of anyone. Training our young people is our top priority.

C. Medical insurance is not provided by the full-time Training in Addis Ababa.

D. Inquiries:

All inquiries concerning these matters should be directed to the Full-Time Training office in Addis Ababa:

WHY YOU WOULD LIKE TO ATTEND THE TRAINING

Using the space below, please write in no less than 250 words why you would like to attend the training.

30

I want to attend the training because my deepest desire is to be transformed and constituted with the truth. In the church life I have seen that a Christian cannot simply live by zeal or by good intentions. We need to be equipped with the truth in a living way so that Christ Himself becomes the content of our being. The training is the Lord's arrangement to bring me into the word to open my eyes to see God's economy and to digest the riches of Christ until they become part of ~~my~~ who I am. I am coming to be equipped with the truth wrought into my spirit.

I also want to learn how to enjoy the Lord in a deeper and more practical way. Christian life is a matter of daily enjoying Christ as our life, our food, our rest and everything. The atmosphere of the training, with its meetings, its studying and of the word and its life of blending creates the environment for me to enter into the enjoyment. I want my relationship with the Lord to move beyond routine prayers to real, intimate and satisfying enjoyment of all that Christ is.

I want to learn how to serve the Lord for His move today. The Lord's recovery is carried out by those who have been trained and perfected. I want to be a useful vessel who knows how to labour on the Lord, minister Christ to others and cooperate for the building up of the Church. The training equips us in both the vision of God's economy and the practical way to serve in the Gospel, shepherding, and raising up others.

Finally, I want redeem my time by enjoying all that Christ is. My days are short and I don't want to waste my best years doing things that cannot satisfy the Lord. The training will help me set my life in order and invest my time in gaining more of Christ.

The above points are my burden to attend the training and I strongly believe it is the best way for me to give the Lord my first and best years for His purpose.

Section 2 – CONSECRATION

A DETAILS OF THE FULL-TIME TRAINING

Step 1. Read carefully through the sections below.

Life grows by regulation toward maturity and function

The training is different from the church meetings. In the church, everyone has the full freedom to work or act according to his or her burden and preference; the church does not have any outward regulations. But the training has its specific goals; they are to help you to build up your character, mind, spiritual life, and knowledge of the truth. As such, there must necessarily be proper restraints. All these restraints are to help you to be disciplined in the proper direction. You should know that the life of the Lord within you will supply you to meet all the outward requirements. You must pray to the Lord that you would be able to meet all the requirements of the training, and that you would be brought to the proper experience of life through your obedience to the training regulations.

You should not join the training simply because you had once told yourself you would come, or because your friends are coming, or because your parents or serving ones want you to come, or because you need to “fix up” your spiritual life. While these may be good intentions, you must first and foremost possess a personal desire, no matter how weak it seems, to be perfected as a living, functioning, and overcoming member of the Body of Christ for the fulfilment of God’s eternal purpose. In other words, you must have a heart to be trained. You should not come to the training just to “put in your time” or to “look good” in front of other saints. The FTTAA is not only a place of enjoyment and glory, but of discipline and exposure. Its goal is high and its standard uncompromising because it is a training of the Lord’s recovery according to God’s economy. Although the benefit one can reap from it is unlimited, it is not for everybody. This training is for those who are seeking and desirous. Having said that, we are still strongly persuaded that there is no better place to be for a seeking young brother or sister after their university graduation than the full-time training!

A Scheduled Living

A typical day in the training is a full schedule. Beginning at 6:00 a.m. with morning revival, the day follows with cleaning, training classes, gospel work, study time, evening activities and house prayer until lights out at 10:30 p.m. Attendance is taken at several points throughout the day allowing the Lord much opportunity to work on our character. Trainees are given a rest day from Lord’s day evening until Monday evening.

House Inspections

Training accommodation is inspected at least on a weekly basis. The goal of the house inspections is not merely to have all trainees conform to a uniform cleaning standard; more so, to help the trainees learn how to coordinate with others, to drop their own standards and concepts, and to have a proper daily living before the Lord.

Computers and Mobile Devices

Please note that personal computers and mobile devices such as laptops, netbooks, iPods, PDAs, etc. may not be used during class or study time, they may only be used during the 24-hour training recess each week.

Internet Use

Use of the Internet is restricted to 20 minutes per day during the 24-hour recess on Lord’s Day evening and Monday. The Internet may only be used for email, travel arrangements, banking and ministry-related sites. Phones may not be used to access the Internet.

Phones

Whilst in the training, all phone calls are restricted to 15 minutes. Except in an emergency, contact with family and friends is restricted to one time per week. Please notify your supporting church, family, and friends of the phone usage guidelines to help avoid misunderstandings.

Service

Part of the training is learning to serve. Service is first to do a necessary task, second to allow the Lord to expose your naturalness, and third to learn to coordinate with others. Therefore, please come with a heart and mind to labour, taking every opportunity to learn as much as you can.

General Rules

Below are a number of rules in the training which may be helpful for your awareness and preparation:

- A. Trainees are expected to take the time to pray alone every day for at least twenty minutes.
- B. Trainees are required to read through at least one chapter of the Bible every day on their own in addition to training assignments.
- C. Trainees must subject themselves faithfully to the training's testings and must complete all assignments in truth study, life study, outreach activities, and service.
- D. No trainee should engage in activity alone with a member of the opposite sex. When on training assignment, meet in groups of no less than three. There should be no mixed gatherings without the presence of a trainer.
- E. Trainees are admonished to speak only in a manner that promotes the purpose of the training. Joking, as well as other unsanctified speaking, is not allowed (Matt. 12:36-37).
- F. For any physical, emotional, or spiritual problems, all trainees are expected to fellowship with those in responsibility. Sisters should confine their fellowship with serving sisters and trainers, and brothers with serving brothers and trainers.
- G. Trainees are to keep a daily record of their prayer and study activities.
- H. Trainees should keep a detailed record of their finances, budgeting their income and recording all expenditures. Be trained to live frugally.
- I. Abide by all schedules. No one is to arrive late or leave early.
- J. No one may get up earlier than 6:00 a.m. Do not disturb others when using the bathroom at night. Every trainee must have lights out and be in bed by 10:30 p.m., except when otherwise specified by the training.
- K. Only use English in the training. Those from non-English speaking backgrounds should exercise to improve their English and be alert not to fall into the ease of using their first language. Beware of language cliques.
- L. Trainees should be polite to roommates and teammates ("Please," "Thank you," "I am sorry," "Forgive me" go a long way). There should be no friendships or cliques in the Lord's recovery. Talk to all the trainees. Do not be exclusive but be conscious of the Body of Christ.
- M. There should be no secular reading during the weekly training schedule. No periodical subscriptions are allowed.
- N. There is to be no smoking, alcohol, illegal drug use, or pornographic material at any time.
- O. Video games are not allowed during the term.
- P. There is to be no gum chewing at any time.

B CONSECRATION AGREEMENT

Step 2. Read and pray over consecration agreement.

1. I agree to consecrate myself first to the Lord and also to the training for this entire period, to be trained in Bible truth, life, gospel, service, and character, and to accept all rules, requirements, and arrangements established by the training.
2. I agree to be responsible to the training and be accountable to it for every area of my life during this period.
3. I agree to attend all the meetings punctually and to participate in all the activities designated by the training. I understand there is to be no choice or option in this matter.
4. I understand that all absences must be only with good reason and with prior permission.
5. I understand that I will be subject to the training's testing, and I agree to do all the assigned homework in the truth study or any other matter assigned.
6. I understand that my apparel will be regulated, and agree to be corrected in my personal attire.
7. I consecrate myself to utterly refrain from initiating or developing any form of particular relationship or association with any member of the opposite sex during my entire time in the training, including the term breaks, except for acceptable conversation and coordination which is necessary in training-arranged activities, such as gospel teams and service functions. I understand that the continuation of any prior relationship of this nature, which was initiated before my coming to this training, must be sacrificed for the entire duration of my training time, with the exception of a pre-existing formal engagement to be married. If engaged, I agree to limit my contact with my fiancé(e) in fellowship with the training.
8. I will strongly exercise to avoid speaking any form of gossip, murmuring, or idle, light talk during the training.
9. I am making the preaching of the gospel of the kingdom through the whole inhabited earth and the carrying out of the training's burden my primary goal, and agree to drop any activity, such as education, jobs, etc., not in accord with this burden for the period of the training.
10. I agree to take every precaution in diet, dress, exercise, and rest as prescribed by the training so that I will not get sick.
11. I also understand that the training has the right to dismiss me at any time.
12. I understand that I do not have the option of dropping this training after the second week.
I choose to abide by all these conditions and desire to submit myself for this training.

Step 3. Sign and date consecration agreement.

I have read through the above details of the training and request enrolment in the Full-Time Training in Addis Ababa (FTTAA) understanding and agreeing to the stipulations above.
